I can hear the fireworks....

Celebrating Grace's 21st birthday with her mom, sister, bestie, and boyfriend! They were visiting a few different places in the area, including us and the distillery on Burnt Church Road.

Happy birthday, Grace 🎂 🖌️

Vivian and her daughter Tia with nephews Mason, Jacob, Urye, and Maison. These boys have to be the most polite, respectful young men I have ever met! What a pleasure working with y'all.

Norah celebrated her 6th birthday with us. Norah chose a bear cub for her friends to paint!

Olivia celebrated her 9th birthday with her dance team. They all painted ballerinas!

My carpenter, Frank Will, came in and did a little work for me in the studio. I really appreciate his skills!

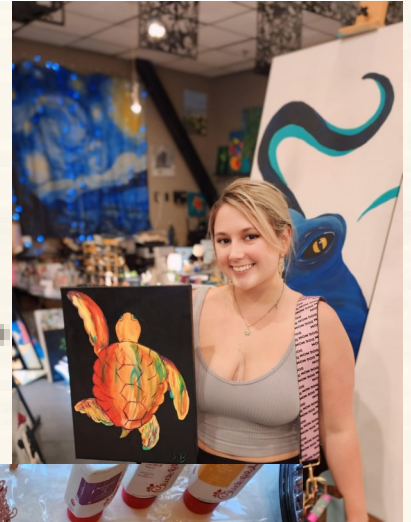

We went out to Fripp Island to work with a family we visited out there last year. Thank you, Tessa, for inviting us back! If you want us to come to you, just let us know!

We had a bachelorette paint party for Somer Lanier. This was so much fun! What a great group of ladies and a few troublemakers. You know who you are !

We celebrated Brittany's 30th birthday with some family and friends. Mom, Renee really went all out to make her daughter feel special. It was a great party.

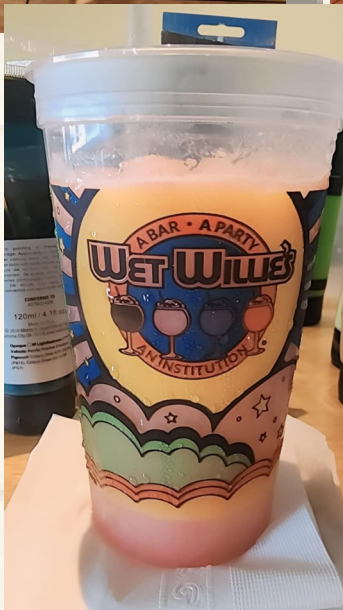

DJ & Chelle and their date night ❤️

Mia and Olivia created door signs this time around with Mom's assistance!

Another fun night at Wet Willie's in Beaufort. You really should join us sometime. Appetizers are included in the price, and the daiquiris are so refreshing in the hot summer nights. July's theme is definitely a Beaufort favorite. (A sketch is always provided). See details in the next few pages! Register early, pay at the event.

The Fowler family was visiting Beaufort and wanted to paint their pets! They came out great! Paint your pet is available anytime. Send us a picture, and we'll sketch you a very detailed canvas and guide you throughout.

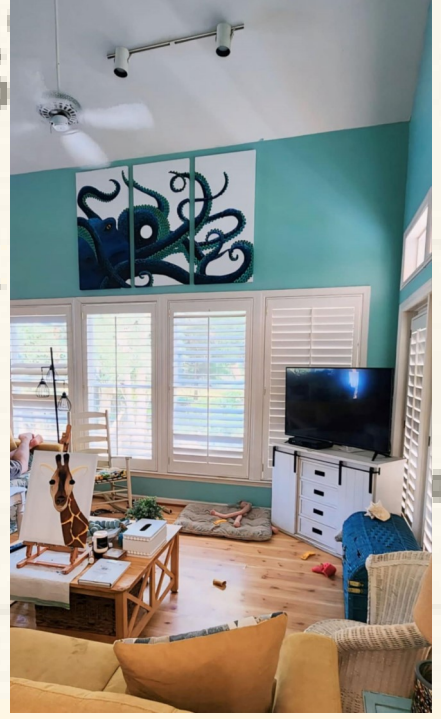

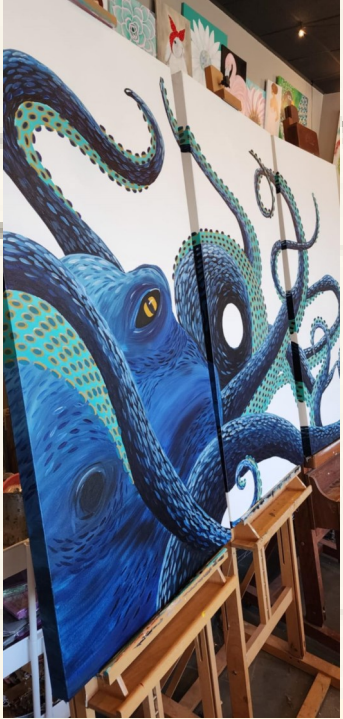

All the way from southern Georgia, Imani and her girlfriends wanted to celebrate paint and sip style! Happy birthday, Imani.

Alexis organized a girl's night for military spouses that resulted in door signs! They really came out nice! Thanks for visiting again. It's always a pleasure.

I've finally finished my octopus painting. I started it over a year ago but got sidetracked by many other things. Once we finished painting our living room, it was time to make him a priority!

#MeetUsMonday

Meet Officer Ray Palmer! He is a Patrolman on Team 1 and has been with the Department since July of 2022. Before working for the Department, Officer Palmer worked in security. When not working, he enjoys going to the gym, running, and playing with his dogs Lucy and Sadie.

Favorite aspect of being a police officer?

"Being able to help and assist the community during the worst times and the best times. From being asked for directions or just having small talk, I love being able to respond to calls for service and make an impact on the community I serve." - Officer Palmer

Yeah, I'm that mom! He's showing you that he's got you! He has 6 pairs of handcuffs, so don't tell him he can't detain all of you!

We lost our beautiful Butters to facial cancer in June. We miss her dearly and the way she used to sit on the balcony, judging us from her perch up above. We only had her for a year, but she was loved.
