Where is the year going?!!

Sydney comes weekly for art after school. She's been working on this particular project, and I can never sneak a picture. She always catches me!

Elizabeth and Charlotte from Mt. Pleasant, Charleston came to visit their grandmother for spring break. They decided that a few hours painting with us was in order ❤️

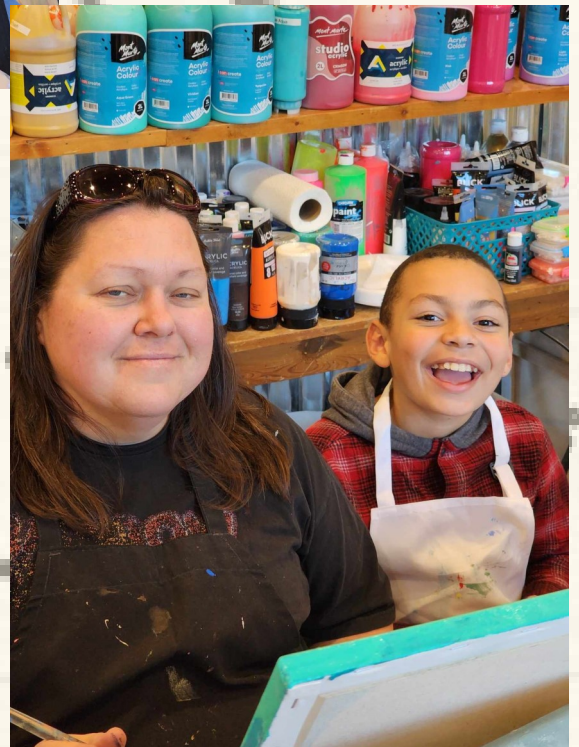

Annabelle was visiting her grandmother on her spring break from Charleston, and we were on their list!

Our neighbor, Joey, brought her two granddaughters, Sadie and Ella, and their friend, Eva, in to paint during spring break. Joey decided not to paint with the girls so she could enjoy watching them paint. She came back to paint a week later!

One of the Beaufort County EMS teams came in to celebrate their teammate's birthday. Needless to say, she had a little too much to drink at dinner and had to leave early so she and her husband will be coming back to paint another time. Her team wasted no time poking fun at her in one of the group pictures! All in good fun, of course. Sadly, a few days later, we lost, Cherish, one of their members. I was privileged to have had an opportunity to meet Cherish and spend a few short hours with her that night.

Girl's Paint Night!
A night of fun and laughter for these lovely ladies.

The ladies from our local Grayco came in to celebrate a birthday. When you see them in the store, tell them you saw their pics on Southern Palette's Newsletter!

Elena goes to great lengths to get her paintings finished! She comes weekly after school. I see a lot of improvement since she first joined me! This is my favorite so far!

My neighbor, Joey, came in to do her painting. It came out lovely like her!

Wendy and Amanda painted stemless wine glasses this time. Stunning!

Quinetta and Taylor took some time to have a date night. They both really focused on their paintings, and it paid off!

Anmarie organized an afternoon painting class with her friend, Tammi, and her two daughters, Stephanie and Kristen. Her birthday is in June, but this is when everyone could come together and they packed a lot into their time together, creating great memories ❤️ Happy Birthday, Anmarie Madison's Miracles at Agave was a success! Jenifer and I enjoyed dressing as señoritas, but it was all for a great charity. A special thank you to Tony for helping out and providing an exceptional taco bar! We had a lot of fun and managed to raise some money in the process! You can always donate on your own any time! Flowers were blooming at Wet Willie's in April! We had some great paintings! Next month's painting is very popular so register early. Walk-ins won't be allowed due to the amount of sketching involved.

Jasmine brought her stepdaughters, Alleigh and Kaydee in for some special mother and daughter time. These ladies have a beautiful relationship, the way it should be. I just loved spending time with them ❤️

Mattie brought her daughter, Lillian Rose, in for part of her birthday. She loves Pikachu. Happy birthday, sweet girl.
