The year marches onward. Let's look back on the month of April.

Amanda and Rhonda spending some mother ❤️ daughter time together.

Vicky celebrated her birthday with her friends.

Much needed down time for these friends. Can you believe they are all first-time painters?

It took a few visits and was a labor of love, but Pamela finally finished her porch sign! It looks fantastic, Pamela.

We went to PARC on Broad River again, where some residents painted "Dream Jar." It was a fun night of painting, meeting their neighbors and making new friends!

There was a Bachelorette party in which we celebrated Mary, bride to be. The group made some oyster shell ornaments.

Carolyn had been wanting to create this oyster shell crab ever since she first saw it. Well, here it is! It looks amazing, doesn't it?

SO WHAT'S HAPPENING IN

We will be open on Mother's Day! Do something different this year. Bring her to Southern Palette Art Studio and make some memories that are sure to last. She will love it and you won't regret it. We promise.

A Mother's love is unconditional.
Show her how much you appreciate everything she does.

She is special!

Treat her to a day of painting or creating any one of a number of projects that we offer from canvas, porch signs, charcuterie boards, and oyster creations, to name a few. Remember, fur baby moms are moms, too!

WHAT YOU CAN DO WITH ONE OF OUR CABINET DOORS.

THEY LOOK LIKE A FRAMED PIECE!

As school is winding down, the kids will have a lot of time on their hands. Get them outside, encourage them to keep reading, and take them shopping with you to keep up their math skills. And you can ALWAYS bring them to Southern Palette to keep that creativity flowing. Visual arts and hands-on activities are important at all ages. Today's kids spend way too much time in front of a screen, video, TV, or phone. We, as parents, have to at least try to introduce some other activities.

We have activities for all ages.
